

On Ju Zheng's Legal Thought, the Legal System of the Republic of China and Chinese Judicial Modernization

Fan, Zhong-Xin Gong, Xian-Zhai

Abstract

Ju Zheng (1876-1951), is the famous politician and legalist of the Republic of China era. He has formed the systematic legal thought progressively, and applied it to legal construction of China actively in the long-term movements of revolution and construction. He is one of the main spokesmen of the Republic of China's legal thought, and one of the main designers and founders of the Republic of China's legal system who has influenced several generations since the 1911 Revolution and made great contribution to the modernization of Chinese legal system.

Keywords: Ju Zheng, Legal Thought of the Republic of China era, Legal System of the Republic of China, Legal Modernization, Judicial System